

Intent Form
Cecil College (CC) and University of Maryland Global Campus (UMGC)
Alliance Agreement Program (AAP)

I. General Program Information

The Alliance Agreement Program (AAP) is a simultaneous admission program that allows students to be dually-admitted to the University of Maryland Global Campus (UMGC) contingent upon the student graduating from Cecil College with an associate degree, being in good standing at CC, submitting an UMGC's application for admission, and meeting UMGC's admission criteria.

II. Release of Information

I understand that certain information must be exchanged between CC and UMGC as part of this agreement. The information to be shared may include, but not be limited to, admission, financial, academic, and advising information concerning my enrollment and performance. By completing and submitting this form, I authorize CC and UMGC to share any educational records and related information necessary to facilitate my admission and participation in the simultaneous admissions program. I understand that I may revoke my authorization to release such educational records or related information at any time by notifying CC and/or UMGC in writing of my desire to withdraw this authorization of release. I confirm that I have read this Intent Form and fully understand the conditions contained herein related to the requirements of the program, my responsibilities under the program, my agreement to comply with the program requirements, and my authorization and release for the institutions, CC and UMGC, to share information necessary to facilitate my acceptance and participation in the simultaneous admissions program.
